

Section 9

Environmental Assessment

The permit renewal submission does not include any new operations or significant modifications to existing operations. In addition, there has been no significant new residential developments or addition of new environmentally sensitive areas in the surrounding the CENC facility. Consequently, the prior Environmental Assessment Reports previously submitted for this facility have not changed since this permit was last issued.